

Memorandum of Understanding on Two Way Investment Promotion Cooperation

The Chilean Foreign Investment Committee and the Investment Promotion Agency of Ministry of Commerce of China (here-in-after referred to as 'both parties') reaffirm the existing strong cooperative relationship in two-way investment promotion between our two countries.

The objective of this Memorandum of Understanding shall be to help the Parties to promote, within the bounds of their own competence, an attractive and stable reciprocal investment climate.

Information exchange:

The parties will jointly establish and promote the smooth information exchange channels with the view to communicate the following information:

- Investment policies and regulations
- Investment environment
- General Information on investment opportunities
- Two-way investment promotion activities
- Working mechanism for investment promotion
- Technical assistance activities for training initiatives between the Parties

Investment promotion activities include:

- Investment seminars
- Two-way investment promotion missions
- Participation on trade and investment fairs
- Links between the investment websites of the signatory organizations and possibilities to jointly hold various investment promotion activities on line

Key industry sector priorities;

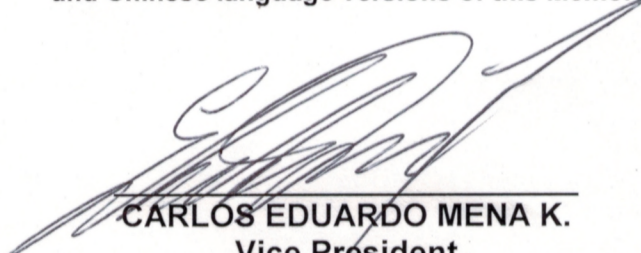

- Key sector of China's investment to Chile:
Mining, agriculture, transport, tourism, technology; energy, industry in general, building industry, etc
- Key sector of Chile's investment to China:
Agriculture, Forestry, Fishery etc

Annual meetings

Both parties will meet annually to review progress and discuss bilateral investment facilitation to achieve increased foreign direct investment between China and Chile.

SIGNED at Santiago on September 6, 2006.

This Memorandum has two versions, one in Chinese, and the other in English. Both English and Chinese language versions of this Memorandum are equally authentic.

CARLOS EDUARDO MENA K.
Vice President
Chilean Foreign Investment

YU HUA
Director General
Investment Promotion Agency